Transparency

Passion for Print adopts a transparent approach to the selection of our suppliers and fully complies with the Modern Slavery Act 2015. Passion for Print has robust contracts and service level agreements with all supply chains which promote transparency between both parties. Any incidents of Modern Slavery or Human Trafficking will be documented, investigated (if appropriate) and referred to the regulatory bodies in line with the Modern Slavery Act 2015

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

Passion for Print Ltd are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

In light of the obligation to report on measures to ensure that all parts of our business and supply chain are slavery free we have reviewed our workplace policies and procedures to assess their effectiveness in

Identifying and tackling modern slavery issues

Our workplace policies and procedures demonstrate our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

Supplier adherence to our values

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values we have in place a supply chain compliance programme.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we intend to provide training to our staff. We will require our business partners to provide training to their staff and suppliers and providers.
